

12th March, 2020

- 1) Our lawyers and staff shall as of tomorrow 13th March, 2020 not be attending office unless it is for some reason strictly required of us to attend. Our offices shall therefore be closed until further notice;
- 2) Our lawyers shall attend court and/or court sittings only if such is required as a matter of necessity resulting from procedure. We are not expecting our clients to attend and shall be keeping them informed and updated on the progress of any sittings they may have and which we are aware of. We shall advise anyone expected to be present in court;
- 3) Our lawyers shall not be holding meetings with clients but shall be as ever available and accessible through the usual means of communication, including telephone and email.

The above procedures are being taken with responsibility in the interest of our lawyers, staff, and clients, for a period of time we believe could only be shortened with the efforts and participation of all Maltese residents.

Antonio Depasquale
Managing Partner

A: 8, Britannia House, Level 1, Old Bakery Street, Valletta
M: 7907 0777